

CONSUMPTION

is, by no means, the dreadful disease it is thought to be—in the beginning.

The trouble is: you don't know you've got it; you don't believe it; you won't believe it—till you are forced to. Then it is dangerous.

Don't be afraid; but attend to it quick—you can do it yourself, and at home.

Take Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil, and live carefully every way.

This is sound doctrine, what you may think or be told; if heeded, will save life.

A MENACE TO HAWAII

The Criminal Japanese Secret Societies.

THEY SHIELD OFFENDERS

Plans of Friends of the Murderous Kaga Frustrated by the Police.

Japanese secret societies are a menace to the community. High Sheriff Brown believes in many instances they defeat justice.

Theodore Richards, who has been instrumental in creating public sentiment in favor of those who are oppressed by the Japanese procurers and their secret societies, believes that these societies have been guilty of gross crimes in shielding offenders.

The murderous assault committed Thursday morning at Iwilei by Kaga, a Japanese vagrant, upon Toma, a countrywoman of his, has brought to light a peculiar condition of affairs.

High Sheriff Brown learned that members of a secret society to which Kaga belonged were endeavoring to gain control of Toma, who lies in the Japanese hospital suffering from the wounds inflicted upon her by the jealous man. Efforts were made by them to interview her while in her weak condition with the idea to threaten her with punishment if she dared to testify against Kaga.

In the early part of the present year when Theodore Richards endeavored to have the Supreme Court take action against Japanese vagrants, the principal witness for the prosecution, a Japanese woman who had been sold into slavery, was intimidated by Japanese belonging to local secret societies and it was with the utmost difficulty that she could be made to give damaging testimony. She was at length put under the protection of the law and those instrumental in saving her from continued slavery and thenceforth her testimony was of great value to the prosecution.

Acting upon the information derived yesterday regarding the various attempts to intimidate Toma, High Sheriff Brown made an affidavit in which startling revelations were given, which he presented to Attorney General Dole. His allegations were as follows:

1.—That he is the High Sheriff of the Territory of Hawaii and is familiar with the above case.

2.—That Toma, a Japanese female, was on the 27th day of December, A. D. 1900, assaulted by Kaga, defendant in the above entitled case, with a dangerous weapon, to-wit, a knife, with intent to murder the said Toma.

3.—That said Kaga is now in custody awaiting the action of the next grand jury and the preferring by such jury of an indictment for such assault with intent to commit murder.

4.—That said Toma (w) is the principal witness for the prosecution in said case.

5.—That without her testimony the evidence for the prosecution is entirely circumstantial.

6.—That said Toma (w) is a registered prostitute and a woman easily influenced by the so-called pimps at Iwilei.

7.—That the said Kaga is a member of a society made up for the most part of so-called pimps.

8.—That this society well knows that Toma (w) is the principal witness against said Kaga and will use every influence to have her avoid giving testimony against said Kaga.

9.—That certain Japanese known to be friendly to said Kaga have already tried to interview said Toma (w) in the Japanese hospital, where she is now staying.

10.—That the said High Sheriff believes that unless the said Toma is bound over as a witness in said case she will be taken away and secreted until said case is disposed of.

ARTHUR M. BROWN,

High Sheriff.

Attorney General Dole, in response to the request of the High Sheriff, immediately filed the following paper in the Circuit Court:

"Motion for Arrest and Detention of Toma (w).—Now comes E. P. Dole, Attorney General of the Territory of Hawaii, and moves this honorable court that Toma, a Japanese female, a material witness for the prosecution herein, may be arrested and detained in custody until she enters into sufficient bonds, with approved sureties, to be present from time to time as ordered or directed to testify in said case."

The First Circuit Judge immediately appended the following order:

"Let the warrant issue as prayed for, for the detention of Toma until she gives bond in the sum of $2,000 for her appearance as a witness in said case, as notified or directed."

Kaga appeared before Judge Wilcox yesterday morning. He endeavored to keep up his appearance of being drunk which he simulated when he gave himself up in the clerk's office Thursday night. When brought in front of Judge Wilcox he had a dazed appearance and the police have come to believe that he is a very good actor. Just what dodge Kaga will take in making his plea is uncertain, but the police are of the opinion that he will declare he was insane from drink. His case was set for December 31, when it is hoped to have Toma brought into court to testify against him.

SHELLS OF A PAST ERA.

Interesting Specimens Found Imbedded in Coral Blocks

Several blocks of coral, containing fine specimens of shells of a period of thousands of years ago were taken out of the excavation which is being made at the corner of Fort and King streets, yesterday.

Endolph King, who took out the blocks, put them aside at the request of Professor Brigham of the Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum at Kamehameha, who was greatly pleased with them, and wished them saved for exhibition in the museum.

Blocks similar in character are still being taken out, and some fine specimens of shells of past eras will probably be discovered.

GREETING NEW YEAR.

Territorial Band Will Play Before and After Midnight.

The Territorial Band will play a half hour before midnight Monday night and will continue playing a half hour or so after the new year is ushered in. The following note to Captain Berger from Governor Dole explains itself:

With New Year's greetings,

SANFORD B. DOLE.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S HAIR.

Its Profusion, at Her Age, Has Always Been a Wonder.

Over 80 years old, Queen Victoria yet has luxuriant hair, which has for years been a marvel. The court physician, following Prof. Unna's discovery, has treated Her Majesty's scalp with a germ destroying preparation, which he has always kept secret. It is now known, however, that the remedy for dandruff, the germ destroying element, is embodied in Newbro's Herpicide, the only hair preparation on the market that does destroy the dandruff germ. Without dandruff, hair will grow profusely, and falling hair will be stopped. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

SIMPLEST THING IN THE WORLD.

Bacon—Did you say your wife's hair fell out in a day?

Egbert—Yes, I did say so.

"Rather extraordinary, isn't it?"

"Oh, I don't know; you see she was combing it on a chair and she happened to open the window and it just fell out."
